(By Associated Press.)

The troops at the front are awaiting Washington developments before chasing Villa, any further.

Parral Fight Changed Plans.
Camp Pershing, April 15, via aeroplane.—The entire aspect of the Villa chase, so far as immediate plans are concerned, was changed as a result of the Parral fight, when, according to reliable evidence here, Carranza troops in force attacked Major Tompkins' command. The attack is believed to have spoiled the opportunity to capture Villa or disperse one of his strongest bands. The Americans believe now they must contend with both factions unless the future course of the Carranzistas is changed.

The association protests that the plan would tie up lake navigation. The protest was given the state department.

Paris, April 21.—The comment of the French press on President Wilson's address to congress may be summarized in these words, printed in Petit Parisien: "Never has the head of a State pronounced such grave words against a State with which it was not at war." The speech made a deep impression in France, overshadowing the British cabinet crisis and the arrival of Russian forces at Marseilles.

Will Wait on Note.
(By Associated Press.)
Washington, April 21.—Unless another ship carrying Americans is torpedoed by the Germans, Washington is not expected to take further action until Germany's reply is received. Secretary of State Lansing said today.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. M. S. Butler, who is 85 years of age, and two children, Mrs. W. E. Clapp of Saratoga and O. P. Butler of San Antonio. Andrew Butler, a brother, also survives him. The funeral was held this morning at 9 o'clock.
